President's Letter

I know that I had a lot of fun on the past season's trips that I attended, which included Winter Park, Crested Butte, and Park City. Winter Park was the FSA annual trip. At Crested Butte, you could ski the whole mountain and we got up to and went down some of the extreme runs. On the Park City trip we skied Park City, Deer Valley, and The Canyons, and some of us also went to Sundance, the resort that Robert Redford owns. It had just 2 long lifts and it's the first time I've been on a lift that has three exit points. From the top you could see almost forever: the Great Salt Lake, Provo, and the highway below. We found that the bowls were steeper than we thought. I would recommend that if you are out in the Park City area that you check Sundance out.

I just got back from the June FSA meeting in Kansas City. I found out what I need to do as the 2010-2011 FSA Activities Director. I will need some help from our club members while we are in Steamboat.

I think that the trips to Steamboat and Telluride will be a lot of fun. Please sign up early for these trips to guarantee your spot.
