I want to thank those who raced for keeping us out of last place. Omaha placed 8th with a total of 964 points. I hope you had fun. That's what it is all about. We are a small group and do not have the numbers that Tulsa and Kansas City has. We just go out and have fun doing it. The first table shows the total points that each of the clubs accumulated.

Congratulations to Phil Bintz who received a Silver NASTAR medal in both the FSA Challenge and the Super FSA race; Dave Griffith who placed 3rd in his age for FSA and also received a Bronze NASTAR medal; Pat Connelly who received a Bronze NASTAR medal and Teri Hammon who placed 3rd for her age in FSA and also received a Silver NASTAR medal.

Congratulations to all of you who raced and gained club points for Omaha Ski Club. It is fun to challenge yourself without having to really compete. Dan Kautzmann who joined us from Chicago area and Fred Longberg raced for the first time. Eric Horn joined us again this year on his snowboard. He had so much fun last year that he came prepared with new board and bindings. Marty Sigg also joined us again after a couple years away. It was great to see everyone out there challenging themselves.

Next year we race in Crested Butte. Hope to see you there!

Teri Hammon
