President's Letter

Hi folks,

The 2011-2012 ski season begins. The Omaha Ski Club has been fortunate these last few years to retain many of their members and gain a few new members along the way. Last year we completed five trips to Copper Mtn, Telluride, Steamboat, Durango/Wolf Creek and Jackson Hole. We have had "exotic dinners" at some of the Omaha area establishments and have had monthly Board meetings. During the summer, we have been busy planning trips to offer our members. This year we start at Copper Mtn followed by Vail. We then join with FSA for the Crested Butte Trip followed by our premier week-long trip to Banff and Lake Louise Canada. We are able to offer these trips and get discounted tickets/lodging only when our members sign-up to go with us. Most areas offer "group" pricing to groups of 20 or more. It is hard to plan for the trip with 20 and not have the numbers. The club loses money when we have to then pay for the difference between a group and individual pricing. We may plan to offer another trip in mid February if the membership numbers are adequate on the other four offerings. If you have any suggestions, let Teri know so she can plan the trip!

This summer, with the water as high as it was, has me wondering what the snow will be like next winter. "Will there be as much snow this ski season?" It's been a long time since I skied as many days on powder as I did last season. I had new snow on every trip that I went on. The most was at Jackson Hole. When we were there last season, they had received their 530th inch of snow. With that in mind I think that everyone should sign up for at least one trip because I think this will be another good season!

Phil Bintz
President
Omaha Ski Club

Trips 2011-2012

Pssst....guess what? It's TIME to get ready for ski season!!!

The first day of Fall is here and the sign-up party is this Sunday September 25th at the Fox and Hound at 5 PM. Come join us as we decide which of the trips we want to join. It seems like I just put my skis away. If you are like most of us, you need the extra time to find your gear and figure out what you might need to repair or replace. The first trip is the most difficult to prepare for.

This year we have four trips to offer. The early season trip in December will take us to Copper Mountain. This is a relatively inexpensive trip for those who want to try their legs and practice some turns.

In early January we will return to Vail where we will be staying at the Evergreen Lodge, walking distance to the slopes. In order to make this trip work, we need 20 participants for group lift tickets otherwise each of us will need to purchase our own lifts on-line prior to the trip. Check with Phil Bintz before getting your tickets. We will try to get the best pricing if we get enough interested participants.

The Flatlands Ski Association will be at Crested Butte this year. We will be at the Woodcreek condos located at the base. This trip offers lodging, 4 days of lifts and activities as well as racing opportunities for all levels. This year our rooming lists are due 30 days prior to the trip and the club will receive penalties if this is altered, so as I say each year, "SIGN UP EARLY!"

Mid-March is our premier trip to Banff/Lake Louise, Alberta, Canada. We will fly out of Omaha for a week in the majestic Canadian Rockies. We offer lodging at the beautiful Fairmont properties and a 5 day lift ticket to all three resorts. The trip includes all transportation, transfers, lifts and lodging. Come join us in Canada! A passport is required and sign-up deadline is January 28th.

We may try to offer a mid-February trip. If anyone has any suggestions, send me an email.

Come join us at the Signup Party and pick up more information about the trips.

* NEW*This year we are offering each member that signs up for a trip, a free pole flag or a leg band with a zippered compartment. You can chose which option you would like. If you wish to purchase either of these items, they are being offered for $5 each. These items have the old Omaha Ski Club logo in white and the background is royal blue.

Hope to see you on Sunday!

Got skis, gotta go!

Telluride Trip - February 26 to March 5, 2011

Eight members of the Omaha Ski Club took the long drive to Telluride CO. Pat Connelly, Phil Bintz, Dave Burden, Andy Rabick, Ben Novograd and Teri Hammon left late Friday night and arrived in Telluride around 1 PM. We met with some snow over Vail Pass but arrived without incident. Mark Storz joined up with the group on Tuesday due to prior commitments and Bill Berger, from Chicago who flew out, also joined us in Telluride. We checked into the Etta Place and Black Diamond condos at the base of the Coonskin lift. Both condo complexes were nice, although we had many stairs to climb at Etta Place. The lift was a short walk from the back door and we were able to ski in at the end of the day. After unpacking and getting settled, we walked around town in search of places to have lunch. We stopped at the Brown Dog for delicious burgers and drinks. Later that evening, we found a quaint bar/restaurant named Llama where we sat in couches, had dinner and listened to live music. It was a nice, relaxing end to this day.

Sunday, we fixed breakfast for everyone, started the dishwasher and were off to the slopes. We gathered at the top of Coonskin lift for a guided tour of Telluride. There was an entirely new area opened since the club was here in 2001. Our mountain host Patrick showed us the area and entertained us until lunch at the Gorrano Ranch. After lunch, we found our own favorite areas to explore. At the end of the day, we skied the long cat track back to the condos. Later in the week, we found an easier way back. We relaxed in the hot tub. It was small but the water was very warm. That evening, we took the gondola to the Mountain Village for the welcome reception at the Telluride Conference Center. We didn't know that we needed to have dinner before we went. There was a fantastic dessert/candy bar, which wasn't too appetizing on an empty stomach. We stayed to socialize awhile then found dinner at Smugglers Brewpub. It was much better than chocolate that night.

Monday we fixed breakfast for everyone then went skiing under bright sunny skies on freshly groomed trails with a soft layer of snow... ahhh. (This was the only day of fresh snow) Lunch was a mountain picnic theme at Gorrano Ranch. The burgers were good. Most entertaining was the bright pink outfit that CMSC trip leader Sue Finis was wearing. After a group photo, we continued to ski the rest of the day. After relaxing in the hot tub, we went to dinner at a Chinese restaurant named Shanghai. It had a nice atmosphere and the prices were reasonable.

On Tuesday we again fixed breakfast for everyone at the condo. It was a bright bluebird day as we headed for the lifts. Polar Queen was a great run in the morning. We took our time and enjoyed looking at the houses along the runs. We enjoyed lunch at Gorrano's and an après ski party at Smugglers Brewpub. We had a great time drinking, eating and socializing until well after dark.

Ben, was that 5 glasses? We staggered to the shuttle and found our way home.

Wednesday started with breakfast at the condo. It was a relaxed day under overcast skies. There were no planned CMSC events this day so we all skied and enjoyed our group. After coming down the Plunge, we stopped at the X-café for après ski. Took the shuttle back to the condos for some hot tub time, and then went downtown in search of a place for dinner. We asked the shuttle driver for suggestions and he pointed out a little Mexican restaurant called Emilio's. It was in the basement of a building on Main Street, kind of hidden except for the sign above the entrance. The food and the margaritas were tasty.

Thursday started with preparing breakfast for everyone. The skies were partly cloudy as we took our first runs down the NASTAR course. We each had two timed runs on the course. Pat almost finished his first run when he fell and injured his shoulder but not bad enough to stop him from skiing. We finally changed our routine and had lunch at Big Billie's. It was a welcome change since we had to end the day with an après ski party at Gorrano Ranch where we enjoyed pulled pork sandwiches and beer. It felt good to relax after a good day of skiing. This theme was continued in the hot tub when we got back to the condos.

By Friday, Bill was an expert at cracking eggs for breakfast. We enjoyed our hot breakfast then skied all day with a bit more fresh falling snow. Lunch was at Gorrano Ranch and the day was complete with the run down the Plunge. We spent a short time in the hot tub before getting ready for the Farewell party at the Conference Center in Mountain Village. On the gondola ride to the party, we enjoyed a lovely sunset and good company. That evening we had a buffet style dinner. CMSC announced that Chicago Week will be at Steamboat next year February 25th-March 2, 2012.

Saturday morning some of us finished off the remaining breakfast food, packed the cars and took off for the long drive home. It was a fun trip even though we had a small group. Thanks to all for making this a success!
