2023-2024 Season's Trips Completed

All of this season's trips have been completed.

Two Board Positions to Be Filled this May

The terms of two of our board members, Pebbles Forster and Ben Novograd, expire at the end of May. This leaves two board positions to be filled at this May's election. Any current member can run for a board position; anyone interested should contact one of two people: our president, Phil Bintz, at 402-630-4753 or our secretary, Ben Novograd, at 402-212-4274. The club bylaws require us to prepare and distribute the election ballots to current members by two weeks before the election party; to do this, we need candidate information by the end of April. Ballots will be mailed during the first week of May.

Trips Update March 2024

Next season, we will be going to Telluride with FSA. (A 6-day, group rate lift ticket ($729) is almost as much as a full EPIC pass) so I am asking everyone to buy a full EPIC pass ($982) for this trip and for all the other trips for the 2024-2025 season. The line-up of trips looks great for next season. I am looking for lodging this month at places like Crested Butte, Park City, Keystone/Breckenridge, Vail or Beaver Creek. We will put the EPIC pass to good use!

- Save the dates for FSA week at Telluride - January 25-February 1, 2025.
- Park City TBD
- Crested Butte TBD
- Keystone/Breckenridge TBD
- Any other EPIC pass destinations you want to ski, let me know

Taos NM Trip

February 4-9, 2024

New Mexico has so much to offer: beautiful sites, art galleries, shopping, Earthship Bioteecture homes, restaurants for any taste and red sandy soil that gets into everything! Oh, and skiing! Yes, snow and wind. Seven members of the Omaha Ski Club drove out to Taos for a few days of skiing and site seeing.

We skied Monday and Tuesday. The first day was sunny and we explored the whole mountain except the steeps. Jordyn took a day of snowboard lessons and decided that skiing was much better than falling many times. We had lunch breaks at the base or at the Phoenix Grill. The skiing Thursday was interesting. 6-8 inches of fresh, windblown snow over the groomed runs slowed you down. It was better on Friday with another 2-3 inches of fresh snow to cover the groomed runs.

The Welcome Party was held at 5 Star Burgers. They had great burgers and brownies with ice cream. Other nights we enjoyed Chinese at Songs (great service, not good Chinese), Mexican at Guadalajara Grill (average food), American at Sagebrush Inn (traditional American menu, with live music and dancing nightly. The Jesse Wayne band was playing when we were there) and Italian at Mondo Italiano (great food and great service).

Wednesday, it snowed and was very windy. The lifts were on a wind hold until 11 AM. They opened for about 15 minutes, and then closed down again. By noon, the area had closed. Some of us didn't ski and returned to the hotel. We went to a couple of shops to look around.

We stayed at the Hampton Inn, which was on the south end of town. They did not have a working hot tub. After a change of rooms due to a loud blower overhead all night long and a non-working TV, we settled in. It was adequate, but we will not stay at that property again.

Some of us explored the Earthship Biecture homes made from recyclable items. They were built into the earth and looked very different from the road. They are self-sufficient off-grid buildings that work in harmony with natural phenomena in order to reuse materials, heat and cool, generate power, collect water, treat sewage and grow food. We also went to the Rio Grande Gorge Bridge which is 656 feet above the Rio Grande River and is 1273 feet long. The views of the surrounding gorge and mountains were spectacular. It is the fifth highest bridge in the United States.

The seven of us had a good time and returned home safely. Taos is a nice mountain for 4-5 days of skiing. For those who do not ski, the town and surroundings have a lot to offer.

Thank you for making this a great trip!
