Park City Trip

March 2-9, 2025

Our March ski trip to Park City, Utah was one for the books! With fresh snow, great company, and a perfect mix of skiing and socializing, it was a week to remember.

We stayed at the Park Avenue Condos, featuring two outdoor hot tubs and a pool—the perfect way to relax after a busy ski day! The condos also served as gathering spots for meals, puzzles, and plenty of laughter. Early arrivals stopped at Yuma Ramen for lunch and enjoyed steaming bowls of ramen. That evening, we started our first 1,000-piece puzzle, a fireman's coat, boots, bag, helmet and equipment—our nightly group challenge.

Monday morning, we caught the shuttle bus in front of our condos, then hit the slopes. It was cloudy with light to moderate snowfall. We had lunch on the mountain then met Mike Whittaker, who gave us a tour of the mountain. He showed us a couple of fun tree runs, The Pines and Pinball Alley. After a full day of skiing, everyone came over to Teri's condo for the Welcome Party. We had spaghetti, garlic bread and salad. It was a great way to start the week!

Tuesday started with a French toast breakfast for our condo. We met at the shuttle stop for the short ride (two stops) to the base. It was partly cloudy skies but a nice day to ski. After skiing, some of us went to the Pig Pen Saloon for après ski refreshments before returning to the condos. Dinner was "on your own" tonight, giving everyone a chance to explore the area restaurants.

Wednesday in our condo started with biscuits and gravy. Dee is a great cook. We caught the shuttle and went skiing. Conditions were good. The sun peeked out at intervals. For dinner, everyone came over for pulled pork sandwiches and salad with ice cream and cookies for dessert. We also put a few pieces in the puzzle.

Thursday, Teri fixed a breakfast casserole for the condo. We skied most of the day, then went into town to shop. Main street was busy with shoppers, vehicles, dog walkers and the trolley. Fortunately, the shuttle took us to and from town. It was easy to get around Park City.

Friday, our condo had pancakes for breakfast. We finished the puzzle! Then we went to ski. It was a bluebird day. We had lunch on the mountain and après ski at the Pig Pen Saloon. Dee suggested we start the second puzzle that was in the condo. It was a group effort to have it finished by Saturday night.

Saturday, we skied and had lunch on the mountain. That evening, everyone brought something to eat and we put it all together and had our Farewell Dinner. There was Bulgogi and sticky rice (Kim's delicious Korean dish), pizza, spaghetti, salad, garlic bread and sweet potato noodles. Of course, we did have ice cream for dessert. We finished the second puzzle with everyone's help...well, almost. Six pieces were missing.

Sunday, we had a group leftovers breakfast then, we loaded the cars for the long drive home. Thank you to everyone who helped make this trip so special—with great meals, warm hospitality, and amazing mountain memories. See you on the next adventure!
